For Immediate Release

DND Appreciation Week at Highland Pacific Golf

August 22, 2011. Victoria, British Columbia, Canada.

Highland Pacific Golf is pleased to announce that September 26 through October 2 will be DND Appreciation Week. In recognition of their service, and ongoing support of Highland Pacific, all personnel associated with DND will be given 25% off green fees and power carts. In addition, members of the CFB Esquimalt Golf Association will be given 30% off green fees and carts.

“Since we opened the golf course in 2008, military personnel have been huge supporters of Highland Pacific,” says Doug Hastie, General Manager. “We have been the golf course of choice for tournaments and parties for many of the Canadian Forces ships and units, and this Appreciation Week is our way of saying thanks.”

###

Highland Pacific Golf was created for golfers who want to enjoy a scenic, challenging course that is playable all year round, with incredible vistas, rolling fairways and challenging greens. Total course yardage is 6,603 yards, par 71. Highland Pacific was named one of British Columbia’s top courses by The Globe and Mail’s Golf and Travel writer Brian Kendall. Highland Pacific Golf was recognized in the Top 100 for 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 rankings done by Golf Range Magazine, one of only three ranges in BC to win that distinction.
